2018 Year in Review

2018 was an exciting year for the Rocky Mountain Health Foundation (RMHF). In our first year of grantmaking, 60 organizations received grants totaling $980,000 for programs supporting health. An additional $160,000 was distributed through board designated gifts and legacy commitments.

Total of $1.14 Million Invested
The roots of the Foundation go back 40 years when Rocky Mountain Health Plans (RMHP) formed in Grand Junction, Colorado.

$38 Million Corpus to Invest
With the sale of RMHP to United Health Care, the Rocky Mountain Foundation became a freestanding public foundation.

22 Western Colorado Counties
13 Board Members from across the Western Slope shepherd our mission to invest in community assets and act as a catalyst for new approaches.
